FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

New Chandler, Ariz., Office Makes 60 for Brokerage Benjamin F. Edwards & Co.; Hires Chicago Market Manager *Also Adds Advisors to Arkansas, Illinois and Ohio Offices

(ST. LOUIS, January 30, 2017) – In addition to hiring 30-year financial services veteran Peter Kramer to serve in the newly-created position of Chicago Market Manager, officials with the St. Louis-based firm [Benjamin F. Edwards & Co.](http://Benjamin F. Edwards & Co.) announced a new office in Chandler, Ariz., staffed with two new advisors. The company also announced four advisor hires in four of its existing offices located in Berryville, Ark.; Springfield, Ill.; Wheaton, Ill.; and Mentor, Ohio.

Collectively, the six new advisors represent $341.7 million in assets under management. With the new office in Arizona, the firm now has 60 offices and a presence in 26 states.

In his role as Chicago Market Manager, Kramer will focus on growing the firm's presence in the Chicagoland area by attracting successful, entrepreneurial advisors who share a commitment to client-first service. Previously, he was with Stifel in Chicago where he managed an office with nearly 30 advisors. Prior to his tenure at Stifel, Kramer led offices in Milwaukee and Chicago for UBS.

“Adding Peter and the professionals in Chandler and around the country, demonstrates our ongoing commitment to bringing aboard advisors who are committed to our client-first approach and are attracted to our extensive assortment of financial products and services,” said Marty Altenberger, executive vice president and director of branches of Benjamin F. Edwards & Co. “Peter’s presence in Chicago will also help us attract talent and expand our footprint in that important market.”

Already, the Chicagoland region has two offices and 14 advisors, Altenberger added.
